Huffstead Management provides property and project management, leasing (market, voucher, and human service housing), commercial and residential lending, maintenance and construction, evictions, and investment consulting for residential and commercial properties. Founded in 2021 and headquartered in Baltimore, the firm leverages years of field experience to deliver reliable, community-focused real estate solutions. By combining traditional property services with human service housing partnerships, Huffstead supports both financial success for clients and safe, supportive housing for those in need.

Tenisha Huffstead, the founder and CEO of Huffstead Management, is a first-generation Jamaican American from Baltimore with extensive experience in real estate and human services. Her diverse background uniquely positions the company to address both property management and community needs.

Ms. Huffstead brings nine years of real estate industry expertise to the company. Her career began in property preservation, where she specialized in light renovations, debris removal, weatherization, remediation, and updates for bank-owned properties. In 2016, she expanded her skill set to include comprehensive property and project management services for private landlords. Prior to founding Huffstead Management, Ms. Huffstead served as Vice President of another Baltimore-based management company, further honing her leadership and operational skills in the real estate sector.

Complementing her real estate acumen, Ms. Huffstead has over a decade of experience in human services. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Human Services with a focus on addictions from Stevenson University, as well as a dual master's degree in Human Service Administration from the University of Baltimore and Coppin State University.

This multifaceted experience has instilled in Ms. Huffstead a deep commitment to community service and a vision for integrating real estate solutions with social impact. Her unique blend of real estate expertise and human services experience positions Huffstead Management to not only excel in property management but also to make a significant positive impact on the Baltimore community and beyond. The company aims to revolutionize the housing industry by providing affordable, quality housing solutions while creating economic opportunities for local residents.
