Cheo D. Hurley is the Founder, President, and CEO of THG Companies LLC, where he has transformed a startup concept into a full-service construction subcontractor and real estate advisory and planning firm. Under his leadership, THG has completed more than $10 million in projects throughout the Baltimore metropolitan region. Mr. Hurley's background includes extensive expertise in urban planning, development, and construction, gained through leadership roles with Park Heights Renaissance Inc., the Forest City–New East Baltimore Partnership, and Deloitte Tax LP. He also served five years as a member of the Baltimore Planning Commission, helping to guide the city's long-term growth.

A Baltimore native, Mr. Hurley earned a B.B.A. in Finance from Howard University, an M.P.A. from American University, and an M.S. in Real Estate from the Johns Hopkins University Carey School of Business. Dedicated to civic and educational leadership, he is a past president of the Gilman School Alumni Board of Governors and a current member of the Gilman Board of Trustees. He also serves on the boards of the Baltimore Educational Scholarship Trust and WYPR Radio, and has contributed to gubernatorial and mayoral transition teams for the State of Maryland and the City of Baltimore. His accomplishments have been recognized by the Maryland Daily Record's "Top 40 VIPs Under 40," the Baltimore Business Journal's "Rising Stars Under 40," and the Greater Baltimore Committee's LEADership program.
